"I would recommend First Philosophy to anyone teaching an introductory philosophy course."
—Paul Churchland,
University of California,
San Diego

"The introductions are fabulous; students find them very helpful. Overall, First Philosophy is an excellent anthology for first-year students; the text has made my job significantly easier."

—Jennifer M. Phillips, Indiana University, Bloomington

First Philosophy offers not only a rich selection of readings but also comprehensive introductions to each chapter and selection, unparalleled among introductory anthologies. These introductions provide useful background information to assist students in their reading, without merely summarizing the primary texts. All editions of First Philosophy include access to a website with additional readings, interactive quizzes, and materials on writing about philosophy.

Business Ethics: The Big PictureEDITED BY MARK C. VOPAT
AND ALAN TOMHAVEFall 2018 7x9 paper 325pp 978-1-55481-430-5
US $44.95 CDN $44.95

This anthology asks students to focus on the assumptions underlying the activity of business. Why does society provide special protections for businesses? What is the purpose of a corporation? What do businesses owe society? And are there some things that shouldn't be distributed by the free market? These questions are addressed through classic readings from such central figures as Smith and Marx, as well as contemporary selections. A number of compelling real-world case studies are also discussed.

Business Ethics: An Interactive Introduction

BY ANDREW KERNOHAN

2015 6x9 paper 264pp 978-1-55481-150-2
US $34.95 CDN $34.95

"Kernohan incorporates economic insights (including behavioral decision theory) to a degree rare in business ethics texts, and ends each chapter with a useful case study. In sum, this is an outstanding text." — Gary James Jason, California State University, Fullerton

This book provides an overview of the basic tools of ethical decision-making and shows how each can be used to resolve moral problems in business. Online exercises offer immediate feedback for testing and student review.

Victims and Victimhood

BY TRUDY GOVIER

2015 6x9 paper 248pp 978-1-55481-099-4 US $27.95 CDN $27.95

"This remarkably balanced and clear-headed book pursues philosophical questions about victims that philosophers have not much engaged. Trudy Govier asks us to think carefully about what makes someone a victim, whether a victim is necessarily innocent or credible, why victims need to be heard, and what victims really need and deserve. Some of these questions are uncomfortable but all are essential. Govier has produced a unique examination, studded with timely examples, of issues surrounding victimhood that bear on crime, violence, war, trauma, and justice." — Margaret Urban Walker, Marquette University

Tell Me Something I Don't Know: Dialogues in Epistemology

BY MICHAEL VEBER

Spring 2018 7x9 paper 200pp 978-1-55481-356-8
US $24.95 CDN $24.95

This is a collection of original dialogues in epistemology, suitable for student readers but also of interest to experts. Familiar problems, theories, and arguments are explored: second-order knowledge, epistemic closure, the preface paradox, skepticism, pragmatic encroachment and the Gettier problem. New ideas on each of these issues are also offered, defended and critiqued, often in humorous and entertaining ways.

Bringing Biology to Life: An Introduction to the Philosophy of Biology

BY MAHESH ANANTH

Spring 2018 6x9 paper 300pp 978-1-55111-990-8
US $34.95 CDN $34.95

This book is a guided tour of the philosophy of biology, canvassing three broad areas: the early history of biology, from Aristotle to Darwin; traditional debates regarding species, function, and units of selection; and recent efforts to better understand the human condition in light of evolutionary biology. No background knowledge of biology or the philosophy of science is presupposed of the reader. Discussion questions are also provided to encourage student reflection.

KURTIS HAGEN AND STEVE COUTINHO

Fall 2018 6x9 paper 350pp 978-1-55481-067-3
US $34.95 CDN $34.95

Philosophers of the Warring States is an anthology of translations of essential readings from the classical texts of early Chinese philosophy. It includes the Analects of Confucius, Meng Zi (Mencius), Xun Zi, Mo Zi, Lao Zi (Dao De Jing), Zhuang Zi, and Han Fei Zi, as well as short chapters on the Da Xue and the Zhong Yong. Pedagogically organized, it offers philosophically sophisticated annotations and commentaries as well as an extensive glossary explaining key philosophical concepts in detail. The translations are designed to be accurate yet accessible, with the goal of opening up these complex but difficult texts to modern readers without prior training in Chinese thought.

EXAMINATION COPIES FOR TEXTBOOK CONSIDERATION

Broadview is pleased to offer both bound book examination copies and electronic examination copies. We encourage you to request titles for possible course adoption; if you doubt you'll use this book for courses in the near future, please help us keep our prices down by requesting an electronic copy instead.

For examination copies, write to examcopies@broadviewpress.com and please indicate course title and estimated enrolment.
